HOYO DE MONTERREY

Founded by Jose Gener, a tobacco farmer from Pinar Del Rio, Hoyos has been in production since 1860. Today, there still stands an iron gate in San Juan y Martinez with the inscription 'Hoyo de Monterrey, Jose Gener 1860' leading to his former tobacco plantation where he grew the tobacco for his own brand of cigar.

MONTECRISTO

Comparatively speaking Montecristo is a relatively new brand that was launched in 1937. They were developed in conjunction with the then importers of Cuban cigars into the UK, John Hunter Morris, half of the name of the company which to this day still imports all Cuban cigars into the UK - Hunters and Frankau. Montecristo are probably the 'definitive' Cuban cigar, with the Montecristo No.2, pyramid, being the flagship of the brand
