

La Maison Bleue

the coast
of pampering bliss

“Nature does not hurry, yet everything is accomplished”

- Lao Tzu

Time is rarely friendly to our bodies, particularly our skin. That’s why at La Maison Bleue SPA, we’ve borrowed a little help from mother nature to create experiences that collaborate with rather than defy time.

To make this a reality, we use products that adopt the same philosophy. Ytsara (meaning ‘freedom’ in Thai) brings your skin the most pampering ingredients that will inspire you with the freedom to take time for yourself, for a premium SPA experience at every visit.

SPA is short for Sanus Per Aquam, which translates from Latin as ‘health through water’. Understanding the importance of water, Ytsara combines Asian botanicals and French innovation to create the only SPA products featuring ‘alive’ water. Pure, untreated water with its original properties intact, continues to interact with your skin long after contact, preparing it for any harmful elements in the environment.
